

Volksbank Rhein-Ruhr eG in Duisburg

In 2016, the Volksbank Rhein-Ruhr moved into its newly renovated headquarters in Duisburg, Germany.

At one of the city's prime location, a work environment with modern workstations, a spacious community area as well as a gym were created for about 200 employees on 8.500 sqm spread over four floors of the building.

The interior designers focused on the use of high-quality and sustainable materials. In the conference area, the management board of the Volksbank discuss and decide at high-quality and representative Tune and Star meeting and conference tables. For the executive offices, Lane and Tune management programmes got the nod.
